Notice.

The public are hereby informed that a Company has been formed under the title of THE QUANTICO WAREHOUSE COMPANY, who have erected, one mile below the town of Dumfries, a large and convenient Warehouse on Quantico creek, for the storage of flour, grain, etc which warehouse will be ready for the reception of produce on Monday the third of Feb. next The trustees of said Company have appointed Zebulon Kankey their Agent, to attend the said Warehouse, to receive produce on storage and grant receipts for the same. And for the prompt delivery of all articles received in the said warehouse by their agent, (fire alone excepted) the Company hold themselves bound. All persons depositing flour, grain, etc, must pay, before taken away, the following storage, viz. For each barrel of flour 6 cents; if it remains in said warehouse one month 8 cents; and in the same proportion for the time it may remain. For each bushel of wheat or other grain two cents; if it remains over one month three cents: and in the same proportion for the time it may remain. And for all articles of merchandise a reasonable storage only will be demanded. Persons storing flour may have it inspected, or not, at their option. If not inspected, the agent's receipt will specify the brand and the state of the barrels The weight of one bushel wheat, running measure of each load or parcel of wheat. All articles stored, the same to be returned to the owner when called for, be it flour, wheat, other grain, etc. Customary allowances for wastage, etc. excepted.

Quantico Warehouse is situated on Quantico Creek only two miles from its junction with the Potomac river, at all times navigable for lighters. There are belonging to this creek a sufficient number of lighters to ensure a brisk transportation down the creek of all articles stored. Vessels may be got to take produce to the district of Columbia Baltimore, Norfolk, or elsewhere. The present freights are—To the district twelve and half cents per barrel of flour, and to Baltimore and Norfolk 25 cents from the mouth of Quantico. The proximity of this warehouse to a large extent of country, added to the goodness of the road leading to it from the westward, being little inferior to paved ones. It being found by actual survey little more than 25 miles from Hay Market, to Dumfries, will, it is confidently believed by the trustees, by this rout greatly lessen the expense of transportation of produce even to the district of Columbia, and they pledge themselves to the public to use every means within their power to give satisfaction.

A tract or parcel of Land, containing between two and three hundred acres, on the north side of Occoquan, in Fairfax county, about 5 miles west of Occoquan mills. The improvements are a log dwelling house & other out houses, and a good apple orchard of about sixty trees.

Virginia Legislature.

Yesterday the House of Delegates met at 10 o'clock, and sat till a late hour—the two principal subjects before them were a Militia Bill, and a bill regulating the fees of clerks of county and superior courts—the first in the house on its 2d reading; the last in committee of the whole.

The Militia Bill was read the 2d time, and ordered to be engrossed and read a third time. This bill proposes to introduce some important amendments into the militia laws—among others to abolish all company musters and to confine their training to the battalion and regimental musters only.

NEW YORK, Jan. 28.

From France.—We have received by the Minerva, Paris papers, printed in English, to the 26th of November. They afford but little.

Cambaceres had returned from his tour through Holland.——The Process against general Grouchy had been referred to a second council of war.——The exportation of all breadstuffs had been prohibited, and a bounty given on that imported.——It was reported that Count Dillon was shot in a duel.——The chamber of Peers was soon to be lighted with gas.——Mr. Canning, on the 24th had a private audience of the King.——Several persons found guilty of murder at Nismes were to be executed.——Numerous vessels had been lost on the coast of France in the gales of November.——The high price of corn at Toulouse had occasioned some riots, and the venders were obliged to reduce the price by the mob; the military, however, restored order, and the markets proceeded. It was supposed the instigators of these seditious movements would be proceeded against.——King Jerome Bonaparte, now Count Montford, who was at Hamburg, had put on mourning, on account of the death of the King of Wurtemberg.

Extract of a letter from Bourdeaux, received by the Minerva.

"The principal of our productions for exportation (wine) is totally wanting this year. We tell you so without exaggeration; since even at this time the principal part of our cultivators have abandoned the hope of gathering their grapes, and the few that have done so, have no other object in view than to gain a sufficient supply of common wine, for the consumption of their laborers. Imagine the enormous loss which our province thus sustains in the total destruction of the article which constituted its principal revenue. It is calculated at thirty millions—affecting equally the landholders, laborers, contractors, and those engaged in commerce. Imagine, also, the high prices which are asked, and which will be obtained for the little wine which remains of the preceeding year's growth: It is really incalculable.

Translated for the N. York Commercial Advertiser.

Louis by the Grace &c.

By our ordonnance of the 3d August, 1815, we have interdicted all exportation of grain out of the kingdom, and the most exact vigilance is exercised on the coasts and frontiers, by the different authorities. In addition to these precautions which guarantee the preservation within the interior of the produce of all the harvests—We have considered that it might be useful to encourage the importation of corn and flour from abroad, by a premium upon the quantities which shall be imported in our dominions

This measure which tends to increase the provisions of France, will produce a diminution in the price of corn, and will give our subjects an opportunity of procuring them at prices more moderate.

For these reasons, on the report of our minister, secretary of state for the interior department.

We have decreed and do decree as follows:

Article 1st, There shall be paid to all French or foreign merchants who, from and after the 15th of next December, shall introduce into our ports grain or flour of wheat, rye and barley, coming from foreign countries, a premium on importation, regulated as follows, to wit:

Five francs per metrical quintal for wheat flour;

Three francs 50 centimes per metric quintal for barley or barley flour.

The same premium shall be paid for the introduction of grains or flour of wheat, rye and barley which shall take place by the Rhine, the Moselle and the Meuse, &c. (other inland places.)

2d. The aforesaid premiums shall be paid by the collectors of custom-houses in the ports of the kingdom, or in the frontier offices of the places at which the grains and flour shall be introduced, and proportionably to the quantities which shall be proved on their entry according to their ordinary forms.

3d. The premium of importation fixed by the first article shall cease to be paid on the 1st September 1817.

4th. Our ministers are charged with the execution of this decree.

Done at Paris &c. the 22d Nov. 1816.

A letter from St. Helena, dated the 22d of September, contains the following statement:—"A very curious circumstance occurred even a few days ago. Bonaparte in a rage, ordered his service of plate to be broken up, the eagles which were engraved to be effaced, and the whole to be disposed of, as old silver. He applied to a merchant, a resident of this place, who asked permission of the governor. He thought that the amount would not exceed 5 or 4,000 pounds sterling. The governor consented to the merchant's going to look at the plate, but observed, that the amount should not be paid to Bonaparte but deposited in the hands of the governor, or the purveyor. When the merchant went to look at the plate, instead of the sum above mentioned, the property was about 10,500l. sterling, a sum rather too great to be procured here at so short a notice. However, in a day or two it is expected that this curious negociation will be brought to a close. It is said, that Bonaparte wishes by these means to make himself independent of the British government, and that in future he will never make any application for money, but live on his own resources. His suite receive theirs from government.

We are glad to learn from the Dutch papers, that the prices of grain are now on the decline in Holland. Large quantities had arrived at Antwerp.

ALEXANDRIA.

SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 1.

FROM OUR CORRESPONDENT AT WASHINGTON.

Jan. 31.

The bill which stood over from Wednesday, that is to say, the "bill to prohibit all commercial intercourse with ports or places into which the vessels of the United States are not permitted to enter or trade," was yesterday brought under the consideration of a committee of the whole house, and after some discussion was at once dropt, as it should seem from a conviction of its impolicy, and in its place a bill of a different kind was substituted. This substituted measure is designed to effect in some degree the purpose of the other, by additional duties and increased tonnage on vessels coming from ports or places where our ships are forbidden to trade. Three dollars added to the tonnage, and fifty per cent additional to the duties are the amounts specified and passed in the committee. How it will fare with the measure in the house remains to be decided.

By a recurrence to my letter of yesterday you will find that from the beginning, this bill was suspected of being untenable.—To attack Great Britain upon her old navigation act, which she has had in force for one hundred years, and to enter the lists with her in a contest of coercion was a badly imagin'd enterprize, more particulary while the fact was yet fresh in our minds and staring us in the face that an attempt to coerce her even from an unstable temporary piece of policy of hers, the orders in council, produced no other effect than to render her more unbending—to put her upon drawing out her boundless resources, and to show us how entirely unassailable she was in that kind of warfare. Our attempt to starve her into compliance only brought to light a secret of which we had not before been aware, viz: that a continuation of that policy on our part would have eventuated in the entire loss of our provision trade to her dominions, which England would have found a multitude of substitutes in various parts of her wide spread empire, on for which the sun never sets. Mr. Sheffy in a short but neat speech, put the matter in a striking point of view, but Mr. Jackson of Virginia gave the bill the coup de grace, by stating that the clamour of our merchants had before drawn the nation into war, in which the said merchants had traitorously deserted their country, and even brot their hostile influence to bear upon it to its danger and injury, and declaring that he never would agree again to place the nation on their account in the same predicament. For which reason he moved to strike out the first section. In consequence of this the bill was abandoned without taking the sense of the house on that question.

I think that one of the most exquisite morsels of eloquence, for the length of it, that I have ever heard, was an eulogy on the venerable old Timothy Pickering by Mr. Randolph. I would give you a faint sketch of it from my memory, but cannot find it in my heart to profane such pure excellence, by a crippled representation of it. The beauty of such things is destroyed by the loss of a single word. If I find that it has been reported by any of the stenographers, I will send you a copy of it. Let me tell you, by the bye, that another delightful effusion of Mr. Randolph's on the character of Edmund Burke which, tho' heard and admired, I could not give you even a tolerable sketch of, and therefore did not think of mentioning to you, has appeared in the Baltimore Telegraph. If you will look into that paper—I believe it was about six days ago—you will find it. Such things as those you ought to preserve in your paper. We have some times good arguments and sometimes sensible speeches from other members—even able speeches, for debate:—but from Randolph alone does there ever come any of those delicious effusions which thrill to the heart and agitate the bosom of taste till it becomes breathless.

John F. Burgwin, Esq. of Wilmington, has been appointed his Britannic Majesty's Vice Consul for the State of North Carolina.

Despatches are said to have been received from Mr. Pinkney by an arrival from Naples. The nature and complexion, says the Washington Weekly Gazette, of any communication from that quarter, we have every reason to infer are not of a favorable character. We require however no proof of the friendship of his Neapolitan majesty than the knowledge that he has imposed a quarantine of forty days on all American vessels coming from any port in the U. States or Gibraltar. This, it may be said, almost shuts the door to any commercial acquaintance.

The following contrivance or invention put into operation on board of the ship George and Susan, Leslie, on a voyage from Stockholm to New Bedford in June last, was no doubt the means of saving that ship and probably a number of lives. It is communicated through the NYork Gazette for the benefit of the public:

"On her passage that vessel sprung a leak, which required the constant labor of the crew at the pumps to prevent her from sinking, and obliged the captain to change his course for a port in Ireland. The strength of the men was exhausted by incessant pumping, before capt. Les. lie commenced his experiment, the success of which exceeded his expectations, and in three or four hours discharged all the water from the hold of his ship. He placed a block or pully ten or twelve feet perpendicular over the top of the pump, and another block at the outer end of a spar which projected from the stern of the vessel, a rope with one end fastened to the upper end of the pump spear, passed through the first block and thence extended to the other block, through which it descended to the surface of the ocean, where it was fastened to a cask, measuring about 110 and containing between 60 and 70 gallons of water.

When the stern of the ship descended or when a sea or any agitation of the water raised the cask, the spear descended into the pump and the contrary motions of the stern and water raised the spear and pump box and the water flowed out.

The rising and falling of the spear, to which about 100 pounds weight were attached, was more frequent than had been anticipated and the water was discharged with greater rapidity than it could possibly have been pumped by the whole crew, who by this fortunate invention were relieved from that laborious duty. A stopper should be tacked to the spear, to prevent the upper box from touching the lower one and also to prevent the box from being drawn out of the pump by any extraordinary motion of the cask and each end of the cask must be tapered to a point, with wood fastened on the heads for that purpose from the forward end of which two lines should lead to the sides of the ship, one on each side, to keep it in its place. Should the vessel have no head way as in a calm, the spar may be placed over the quarter, or run out on one side and her rolling will then work the pumps.

If the length from the lower box to the upper end of the pump be about 6 feet, it will be best that the box and spear rise and fall that distance. The little time and labour, with which the pumps can be fitted in this way, are a great recommendation of this invention and together with the certainty of its success, entitled captain Leslie to the praise, and the reward of a valuable discovery

NAVIGATOR.

MARRIED.

On Tuesday, the 28th inst. by the Rev. Mr. Balch, Mr. Samuel J. Potts, to Miss Mary Ann Ross, daughter of Andrew Ross, Esqr. of Georgetown, D. C.

DIED, at Annapolis, on Saturday the 25th instant, after a very short illness, Mr. JOHN V. WEYLIE in the 40th year of his age. The death of this gentleman at so early a period, is felt with deep regret by a very extensive acquaintance, and a numerous circle of friends to whom he was peculiarly endeared by the possession of many virtues. To the extensive information and polished taste of a classical scholar, he united a temper of mind remarkable for an uniform and unclouded cheerfulness, a constant flow of good humor and of a sprightly wit.—The loss of so many amiable and attractive qualities has left a chasm in society which cannot easily be replaced.

Mr. Weylie has left an amiable and accomplished widow on whom the bitterness of mourning has fallen most heavily.

NORFOLK, Jan. 27.

Loss of the Baltimore Packet Stephen Decatur.

It is with much regret, we announce the loss of the Packet Stephen Decatur, Capt Campbell, one of the regular line plying between this place and Baltimore, and in every respect an excellent vessel. We are politely favored with the following particulars of this unfortunate occurrence by one of the passengers, who arrived in town yesterday in Capt Thomas's oyster boat, hired for the purpose;—

The Stephen Decatur sailed from Baltimore on Saturday the 18th inst, at fifteen minutes before two o'clock, P. M. with a fair wind.—The wind increasing almost to a hurricane, and the cold being intense the vessel became clogged with 30 or 40 tons of ice, which rendered her unmanageable by the crew who being badly clad were perfectly benumbed by the cold At a quarter before two o'clock on Sunday morning then out 12 hours, she struck on a shoal, supposed first to be Smith's Point, but which proved to be Tangier Island. Being on a lee shore, the waves made a fair breach over her, sweeping the deck fore and aft. In this melancholy condition the vessel bilged, and the water pouring into the cabin windows in torrents, the passengers were compelled to desert the cabin and take refuge on deck where the surf breaking over every moment enveloped them in ice. The pumps were kept going, and every effort made to get her off proving fruitless, they were compelled to take to the boat and abandon her. Having gained the shore, almost exhausted with fatigue and acute suffering, they were hospitably received by Messrs. Evan's, whose kindness much alleviated their deplorable situation.

The passengers were Messrs. Chs. K. Mallory, Collector of this port, Francis S. Taylor, of the Virginia Bank, David Galespie of New York, John Colter of Baltimore, Captain Winegar, Capt. Hadden Mr. Abbot and Mr. Littleboy of Philadelphia, and a coloured woman; all of whom with the exception of Messrs. Mallory and Taylor, have arrived here in safety. They remained in comfortable quarters at Indian Creek, whither we learn the revenue cutter will be dispatched to day to bring them home.

each about 17 or 18 years old. Allen has a round face, small hands and feet, stoops forward when walking, speaks slow, and is small for his age—he has a mother living in Alexandria by the name of Downs, whose husband, Bernard Downs, is a waterman. Hilton, also speaks slow and smiling, lifts his feet high and stoops when walking, has large feet and remarkable long great toes: he has a grand mother living near Chaptico, St. Mary's County, Maryland, who is the only relative he has living. Their clothing is country made, unless changed for deception.

All masters of vessels and other persons are hereby warned not to harbor or employ said apprentices at their peril.

ROBBERY.

On the night of the 5th of December, 1816, the Exchange Office of the subscriber, Bridge street, Georgetown, from appearances by a false key, was robbed of the following property, in Specie, consisting of dollars, change, American and English gold, about 200 dollars; bank notes, mostly three dollar notes of the bank of Washington, and some small tickets, together about 30 dollars, a one pound note of the bank of England, and one hundred and sixty four lottery tickets as per numbers below. The lottery tickets can be of no use to the persons taking them, and an attempt to pass them would only lead to a detection, it is therefore hoped that the person or persons who took them, will return them to the subscriber through the Post Office at Georgetown. A liberal Reward will be paid by the subscriber for any information that may lead to the discovery of the persons or a recovery of the property. All keepers of lottery offices in the United States will please to keep a list of the numbers of the following tickets, as it may lead to a discovery of the theft.

JAMES KENNEDY & SON,

BOOKSELLERS, KING STREET,

Have just received from LEE'S PATENT MEDICINE Store, No. 46 Maiden Lane, N. York,

A FRESH SUPPLY

Of the following genuine Medicines.

For the prevention and cure of Bilious and Malignant Fevers, is recommended

Hahn's Anti-Bilious Pills.

THIS Medicine has been attended with a degree of success highly grateful to the inventor's feelings, in several parts of the West Indies, and the Southern & Middle States, particularly in N. York Philadelphia, Baltimore, Petersburg Richmond, Norfolk, Edenton, Wilmington, Charleston, and Savannah. The testimony of a number of persons at each of the above places can be adduced, who have reason to believe, that a timely use of this salutary remedy has, under Providence, preserved their lives, when in the most alarming circumstances.

Facts of this conclusive nature speak more in favour of a medicine than columns of pompous eulogy, founded on mere assertion.

It is not, indeed, presumptuously proposed as an infallible cure, but the inventor has every possible reason that can result from extensive experience, for believing that a dose of these Pills, taken once in every two weeks, during the prevalence of our bilious fevers, will prove an infallible preventative; and further, that in the earlier stages of those diseases, their use will very generally succeed in restoring health, and frequently in cases esteemed desperate, and beyond the power of common remedies.

The operation of these pills is perfectly mild, so as to be used with safety by persons in every situation, and of every age.

They are excellently adapted to carry off superfluous bile & prevent its morbid secretions—to restore & amend the appetite—to produce a free perspiration and thereby prevent colds which is so often of fatal consequences. A dose never fails to remove a cold if taken on its first appearance—they are celebrated for removing habitual costiveness—sickness of the stomach and severe head-ache—and ought to be taken by all persons on a change of climate.

They have been found remarkably efficacious in preventing and curing disorders attendant on long voyages, and should be procured and carefully preserved for use by every seaman.

HAMILTON'S WORM DESTROYING LOZENGES.

Which have cured an immense number of persons of both sexes, of every age, and in every situation, of various dangerous complaints arising from worms, and from obstructions or foulness in their stomach and bowels.

This medicine bears no analogy whatever to others of similar titles so commonly complained of, as operating with violence; on the contrary, a particular excellence of this remedy is its being suited to every age and perfectly so—it contains nothing but what is constitution nocent, and is also mild in its operation, cannot injure the most delicate pregnant lady or the tenderest infant of a week old. Could no worms exist in the body; but will, without pain or griping, cleanse the stomach and bowels, of whatever is foul or offensive, and thereby prevent the production of worms, and many fatal disorders. The lozenges are particularly efficacious in carrying off all gross humours and eruptions, feverish and bilious complaints, and are the safest and mildest purgative that can be used on any occasion.

DESCRIPTION OF WORMS.

And the symptoms by which they are known:

Worms which infest the human body, are chiefly of four kinds, viz.—The Teres, or large round worm; the Ascarides, or small maw-worm; the Cucurbitina, or short, flat, white worm; and lastly, the Tænia, or tape-worm, so called from its resemblance to tape. This is often many yards long and is full of joints. It is most hurtful and most difficult to remove.

Among the symptoms attending worms are—disagreeable breath, especially in the morning; bad and corrupted gums; itching in the nose, and about the seat; convulsions, epileptic fits, and sometimes privation of speech; starting and grinding of the teeth in sleep; irregular appetite, sometimes loathing food, and sometimes voracious; purging, with slimy & fœtid stools; vomiting; large and hard belly; pains and sickness at the stomach; slow fever, with small and irregular pulse; a dry cough; excessive thirst; sometimes pale and unhealthy countenance, and sometimes the face coated and flushed.

Persons afflicted with any of the above symptoms, should have immediate recourse to Hamilton's Worm Destroying Lozenges, which have been constantly attended with success, in all complaints similar to those above described.

A dose of this medicine given occasionally during the warm season, will effectually prevent "the vomiting and purging of chint"—a dreadful disorder, which annually destroys the hand[illegible] the infa[illegible] part of our citizens in likewise th[illegible] mildest and m[illegible] certain remedy known, and has restored to health and strength a great number, when in an advanced stage of this fatal complaint. Particular and plain instructions are given for every part of the necessary treatment in such cases.

Children generally take this medicine with eagerness; having a pleasing appearance, and an agreeable taste.

Hamilton's Essence and Extract of Mustard.

A safe and effectual remedy for acute and chronic rheumatism, gout asthmatic gout, palsy, lumbago, numbness, white swellings, chilblains, sprains, bruises, pain in the face and neck, etc.

The Genuine Persian Lotion.

So celebrated among the fashionable throughout Europe, is an invaluable cosmetic, perfectly innocent and safe, free from corrosive and repellant minerals, the basis of other lotions) and of unrivalled efficacy in removing blemishes on the face and skin, freckles, pimples, inflamatory redness, scurfs, tetters, ringworms, sunburns, prickly heat, &c. The Persian Lotion operates mildly, without impeding the natural, insensible perspiration, which is essential to health. yet its effects are speedy and permanent, rendering the skin delicately soft and smooth and improving the complexion.

The Restorative Powder for the teeth and Gums.

This excellent preparation comforts and strengthens the gums, preserves the enamel from decay, and cleanses and whitens the teeth, by absorbing all the acrimonious slime and foulness, which suffered to accumulate, never fails to injure and finally ruin them.

Hamilton's Grand Restorative,

Recommended as an invaluable medicine for the speedy relief and permanent cure of the various complaints resulting from dissipated pleasures, juvenile indiscretions, residence in climates unfavourable to the constitution, the immoderate use of tea, frequent inoxications or any other destructive intemperance, the unskilful or excessive use of mercury, the diseases peculiar to females at a certain period of life, bad lyings in, &c.
